TWENTY-SIXTH DAY
(Monday, March 13, 1989)

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Armbrister, Barrientos, Bivins, Brooks, Brown, Caperton, Carriker, Dickson, Edwards, Green, Haley, Harris, Henderson, Johnson, Leedom, Lyon, McFarland, Montford, Parker, Parmer, Ratliff, Santiesteban, Sims, Tejeda, Truan, Uribe, Washington, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Glasgow, Krier.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Ivan Johnson, Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Terrell, Texas, offered the invocation as follows:

Most Holy and Gracious God, we thank You today for the privilege of life and a portion of our health and strength. Forgive us our sins. We thank You for the family of mankind of which we are a part. Grant us Your peace, love and understanding. We thank You for these leaders of this body who have committed themselves to the betterment of mankind. May that commitment reach across lines of race, creed and origin. We beseech Your blessings of wisdom, knowledge and direction in their every deliberation.

We confess that we have not always used our resources wisely, and we need Your guidance. Give us the spirit of compassion for the less fortunate and the weak. Grant us the courage to face and contend with opposition to right.

In the name of Christ Jesus we pray. Amen.

On motion of Senator Brooks and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of Thursday, March 9, 1989, was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House Chamber
M March 13, 1989

HONORABLE W. P. HOBBY
PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

SIR: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has passed the following:

H.B. 1, Relating to the reform of the workers' compensation system and to the creation, powers, and duties of the Texas Workers' Compensation Board; providing penalties.

Respectfully,

BETTY MURRAY, Chief Clerk
House of Representatives

SENATE BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

The President announced that bills and resolutions would be read first time and referred to committees at the conclusion of today's session.

SENATE RESOLUTION 243

Senator Haley offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is honored to welcome distinguished guests from Livingston, Montana, to the Capitol Building and Capital City; and

WHEREAS, Participants in the Hands Across the Nation cultural exchange program between the residents of Livingston, Texas, and Livingston, Montana, they are here to further the ties of friendship between Texas and Montana; and

WHEREAS, Since their initial contact, citizens of both Livingston, Texas, and Livingston, Montana, have remarked on their many similarities; and

WHEREAS, Blessed with many fine residents, both towns are splendid places in which to raise families; and

WHEREAS, In an affirmation of their growing amity, the towns exchanged five citizens, including radio disc jockeys, for a weekend of bountiful hospitality and goodwill; and

WHEREAS, The exemplary goals of Hands Across the Nation are truly deserving of legislative recognition; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby declare these worthy emissaries from Livingston, Montana, as Honorary Texans with all attendant rights and privileges; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for them with best wishes for a most memorable sojourn in the Lone Star State.

The resolution was read and was adopted viva voce vote.

GUEST PRESENTED

Senator Haley introduced Terry Michael of Livingston, Montana, to the Members of the Senate.

Mr. Michael of Radio Station KPRK in Livingston, Montana, working in Texas in exchange for Bubba Haley, Radio Station KETX of Livingston, Texas, was escorted to the President's Rostrum. The President presented a Texas flag and an enrolled copy of S.R. 243 to Mr. Michael.

The Senate welcomed Mr. Michael and other Montana guests to Texas.

SENATE RESOLUTION 242

Senator Lyon offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Parents seeking support after the death of a child have found solace through the Bereaved Parent Support Group founded by Barbara Snow of Terrell, Texas; and

WHEREAS, With the opening March 1, 1987, of a free counseling center, the group reached a turning point and a dream come true for its founder; and

WHEREAS, A unique solution to coping and surviving the loss of a child found its roots in Terrell largely through the efforts of one woman; and

WHEREAS, Bereaved Parent Support Group meetings involve group discussions where participants can express their feelings of fear, anxiety, and grief and share one another's concerns; and

WHEREAS, Guest speakers at the monthly meetings include psychologists, ministers, and other qualified experts in the field of bereavement; and

WHEREAS, As in all areas of involvement since the support group began, the center, the doctors' contributions, and all connecting services are donated; and

WHEREAS, Over the past three years, the group's ideals have been adopted by similar gatherings across Texas and the surrounding states; and

WHEREAS, The support organization is a self-help group which shares the common bond that the loss of a child can bring to all those who have experienced it; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby commend and express appreciation to the Bereaved Parent Support Group and its founder, Barbara Snow, for their unparalleled efforts in bringing support and comfort to those in need; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for the group as a token of admiration and respect from the Texas Senate.

The resolution was read and was adopted viva voce vote.

GUEST PRESENTED

Senator Lyon introduced Mrs. Snow to the Members of the Senate.

Mrs. Snow was welcomed to the Senate as a guest for the day.

SENATE RESOLUTION 223

Senator Lyon offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas takes great pleasure in joining the citizens of Terrell in celebration of Terrell Day at the State Capitol on March 13, 1989; and

WHEREAS, Located in north central Kaufman County on the Texas and Pacific and the Texas and New Orleans railroads, Terrell is the largest town in the county; and

WHEREAS, George Paschall, one of the first settlers, arrived in the scenic area in 1848, and the tiny community blossomed with the coming of the railroad in 1873; and

WHEREAS, Steeped in history this community has retained many of its historic buildings; among these lovely old homes is the Dr. L. E. Griffith Homeplace, home of the personal friend and physician of Sam Houston; Dr. Griffith also ministered to residents of San Antonio after the fall of the Alamo; and

WHEREAS, Terrell is currently a banking-market center for this large agricultural area featuring cotton, beef cattle, and dairying; 33 local industries include the manufacture of athletic uniforms and other garments, steel, aluminum, plastic, and wood fabrication; and

WHEREAS, Housed in the old Texas-Midland Railroad freight depot built before the turn of the century, the Hart Museum Gallery features Santa Fe and Southwestern Art; and

WHEREAS, One of its more unusual attractions is the Silent Wings Museum dedicated to airborne personnel of World War II with a special emphasis on the role of glider pilots; and

WHEREAS, In the early 1900s the citizenry established several educational institutions and today Terrell has two highly regarded colleges, Southwestern Christian College and Trinity Valley Community College; and

WHEREAS, With its proximity to the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex and with the opening of Interstate Highway 20, Terrell is strategically located and is a vital and diverse community; and

WHEREAS, Tourists are drawn to the beautiful recreational areas at scenic Cedar Creek Lake, Lake Tawakoni, and Lake Ray Hubbard to enjoy the excellent fishing, boating, water skiing, and swimming; and

WHEREAS, The many contributions of the citizens of this modern, energetic city to the State of Texas are cause for great appreciation by all Texans; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby declare March 13, 1989, as Terrell Day as a gesture of highest esteem and in recognition of this remarkable city's contributions and achievements; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for the City of Terrell in recognition of their celebration and as an expression of congratulations from the Texas Senate.

The resolution was read and was adopted viva voce vote.

GUESTS PRESENTED

Senator Lyon introduced a large delegation of Terrell citizens seated in the Gallery.

These guests were welcomed.

GUEST PRESENTED

Senator Truan was recognized and presented Dr. Bruce A. Hoekstra of Corpus Christi.

Dr. Hoekstra, accompanied by his wife Sandy and children Stephanie and Brant, participating in the "Capitol Physician" program sponsored by the Texas Academy of Family Physicians, was welcomed by the Senate and received an expression of gratitude for his service today.

GUESTS PRESENTED

Senator Truan introduced Noe Ortiz, Jr., and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noe Ortiz, Sr., seated in the Senate Gallery.

Noe, participating in the Youth Art Month, March 11-18, 1989, has been selected to display his art in the Capitol Rotunda.

The Senate extended a welcome to the Ortiz family and congratulations to Noe.

SENATE RESOLUTION 245

Senator Washington offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to acknowledge the first "Deaf Legislative Action Day" in Texas and to welcome all those who are here with the Symposium on Deafness and Hearing Impairment; and

WHEREAS, "Deaf Legislative Action Day" is designed to give persons who are deaf or hearing impaired a chance to observe the legislature in action and to visit with their legislators; and

WHEREAS, The Symposium on Deafness and Hearing Impairment '88 is for persons who are deaf or hearing impaired, parents of children who are deaf or hearing impaired, professionals who work with people who are deaf or hearing impaired, and friends of citizens of Texas who are deaf or hearing impaired; and

WHEREAS, Expected to draw persons from this community and from around the state, this gathering gives individuals an opportunity to express their concerns about various issues, to learn how they can all work together toward the common goal, and to find ways to impact the lives of people who are deaf or hearing impaired through state services and the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, The goals of the Symposium include: to inform persons who are deaf or hearing impaired of ways to access social services and the political process; to determine issues and needs and to set priorities; to establish and disseminate networking systems to the grassroots deaf community; to develop a healthy working and cooperative relationship between all deaf and hearing persons interested in improving conditions for persons who are deaf or hearing impaired; and to inform social agencies and legislative members of the priorities set by the Symposium participants; and

WHEREAS, The "Deaf Legislative Action Day" is coordinated by the Texas Association of the Deaf; Advocacy, Incorporated; Self Help for Hard of Hearing People, Incorporated; Coalition of Texans with Disabilities; and Symposium on Deafness and Hearing Impairment '88; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby commend and applaud all those who are dedicated to improving the quality of life for our citizens who are deaf or hearing impaired; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared as a token of admiration and as a memento of this special event from the Texas Senate.

The resolution was read and was adopted viva voce vote.
